Dear Past and Future Mankato Home Show Vendors,

We are proud and excited to announce that Radio Mankato will be stepping into the management role of the Mankato Home Show, formerly known as the Southern Minnesota Home & Builders Show.

We are determined to make this show bigger and better for you, while also executing a great experience for your future clients. With our seven radio stations here in Mankato, and twelve additional stations in our network, we are uniquely positioned to drive a large crowd to this event. But that won't be all, we plan to continue investing what is necessary in other areas to ensure that this show becomes the premier Home Show in Southern Minnesota.

We are going to provide you, our vendors, a full-service show, each booth will be furnished with a skirted table & chairs (if needed), electricity and Wi-Fi.

The Mankato Home Show will take place the weekend of Friday, March 11, 2022 running through Sunday, March 13, 2022. Space is limited and will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. We would encourage you to write down any special requests that you may have and we will do our best to accommodate those needs.

Please note that any business that participated in the 2021 Southern Minnesota Home & Builders Show will be guaranteed a spot in the 2022 show if the registration form, ST19 form and payment is received by Friday, October 29, 2021.
